ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.

Big Bill of Keith Vaudeville and William S, Hart in a Tiangle Feature For Thursday, Friday and Sat-Saturday.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week the management of the Davis theatre have secured a big show of Kelth vaudeville and Triangle pho-Davis theatre have secured a big show of Keith vaudeville and Triangle photoplays. The feature attraction is Lucy Gillette and company, presenting one of the biggest novelties ever seen here. The act carries all their own scenery and is a big headliner on the big Keith circuit. Another big act is the Three Lyres, three men who do a singing, musical and comedy specialty, that always is a hit, and the third act is Kate Rooney and company. This lady gives imitations of her father, the famous Pat Rooney. The Triangle feature is called The Aryran, a five part western picture with the greatest of all western actors, William S. Hart playing the leading part. This picture is said to be the greatest picture this popular star has ever appeared in, so don't fail to see it. The Keystone comedy is called His Bread and Butter, a two reel goat getter and mirth provoker that will make you forget your troubles. Matinee daily at 2.15. All seats 10 cents; evening at 6.45 and 8.45, 10, 15 and 20 cents. Special music by the Davis theatre concert orchestra. theatre concert orchestra.

Don't fail to see this big show.

WILLIAM HODGE TO VISIT

US IN NEW PLAY. At the Davis Theatre, Tuesday May 23,

In a sense the settings of William Hodge's latest success, Fixing Sister, in which the beloved American star in which the beloved American star will play the Davis theatre on Tuesday evening, May 23, represents the ideals of the famous Tiffany studios, being based upon the Tiffany ideas in its general effect and detail. The entire production was supervised by Mr. Charles Stevens, one of the most expert of the Tiffany designers. The seneral scheme is a period one—the period represented being that of Louis XV. In one scene this Louis XV room is also decorated in a particularly sumptuous manner for an ultrafashionable bridge whist party, in which over thirty people take part as hostess and guests. It is in this house, also, that one of the most remarkable dramatic events of the piece occurs. It is a great comedy surprise climax extremely sensational in its nature.

William Hodge has been provided William Hodge has been provided with as unique a personality and interesting part in his latest success as he ever had in any of his previous plays. Being a comedy drama of New York life in the so-called smart set, it presents him in a totally different character than that of Jim Whitman in The Road to Happiness, in which role he was last seen here. As John Otis in his present drama he more nearly approximates to his Daniel Voorhees Pike of The Man From Home, and yet it is an absolutely distinct characterization, being more universally representative of the highly developed American business man ly developed American business man and gentleman of the present day. Otis, like Pike, has that peculiar ming-ling of honesty and humor—that peling of honesty and humor—that pe-culiar American way of expressing the truth in a sentence of laughter or an epigram of wit. From first to last in its four acts Mr. Hodge is at his best. Added to this is the fact that he has, as in his invariable custom, surround-ed himself with such notable artists as Hamilton Deane, the well-known leading man of London celebrity: Teresa Maxwell-Conover, the noted portrayer of society roles; Miriam Col-lins, the very young and charming leading lady; Ida Vernon, the cele-brated grand dame, and Charles Can-field, one of the best characters on the 'present-day stage.

Seats on sale Saturday at 10 a. m. Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50. Mail orders should be sent now.

AT THE AUDITORIUM. Private Lewis Gobel. First, Canadian Expeditionary Force, Here To-

As a special attraction for today and tomorrow, the management of the Auditorium have secured a novel attraction in Private Lewis Gobel, who will man Red Cross, succeeding to the position formerly occupied by Bernhard Dernburg and Meyer-Gerhardt. The New York office of the German Red Cross delegates acts as a sort of English army fighting side by side with the French soldiers for a period of almost two years. Mr. Gabel who comes originally from New Haven was working in Montreal when the great war broke out, and he, with many of his fellow workmen enlisted immediately and crossed the ocean with the First Canadian Expeditionary force that was called into active service. He has many experiences to proceed the control of the care of families of soldiers. Besides the preservation of health and the care of families of soldiers. He has many experiences to relate as well as explaining and discribing the different battle scenes in the accompanying five reel picture. As a matter of fact Mr. Gabel is one of the few in his regiment who are alived today, as nearly the artire force we today, as nearly the entire force was wiped cut at the battle of Ypres in which they took a prominent part. Mr. Gabel was wounded two different times, first while carrying dispatches from one division of the army to the other and later while driving an automobile ambulence. A condial invitemobi'e ambulance. A cordial invita-tion to all the members of the G. A. R. to attend one of these interesting lectures has been extended by the management of the theatre with their compliments.

Compliments.

Other pictures on the bill for today and tomorrow will be a two reel Kleine western photopiay entitled. The Massacre, and the Pathe late news film, or weekly which will contain many interesting subjects.

THE COLONIAL.

The feature picture at the Colonial today is The Irish in America, Lubin drama, in three parts. The Irish in America, Dan Murphy loves Peggy O'Sullivan, but he is too poor to think of matrimony. Dan sells his one cow, bids farewell to the weeping Peggy, and sets sall across the Atlantic for America. Arriving there, he makes track for a mining camp, where he has many adventures until he strikes it rich. Later Peggy arrives in America and goes to Dan's last known address and on the way meets two working girls who befriend her. Dan has disappeared, however, and the only clue to his whereabouts is a picture postal card bearing the postmark of the western mining camp. Undaunted, Peggy packs up her few belongings, and in the course of time arrives at the camp to the delight of lars. Between five and six thousand

Dan. It doesn't take long to summon the priest and they are married. The Guest, Sells drams, other pictures for today are: Mr. Jarr's Big Vacation, Vit. drams, and Ham the Statue, Kalem comedy, that ends today's big bill. Matines overy day, 5 cents. Evenings 10 cents. New show every day.

OPERA PATIENCE.

The Davis theatre will ring tenisht with Sir Arthur Sullivan's tuneful melodies. Patience followed shortly after Pinafore and was first performed at the Opera Comique, London, on Saturday, April 23, 1881, under the management of R. D'Oyly Carter. It met with immediate success and enjoyed an unusually long run.

The performance to be given on Wednesday night will be complete and will be full of both interest and charm. No simpler way could be found for premoting Y. M. C. A. work than by attending this performance. You will be delignifully entertained. The Y. M. C. A. will be benefited, and perchance a beginning will be made for some gifted young singer or actor who will grow to be the pride of the home city. The cast of characters follows:

PLANS COMPLETED FOR BIG BENEFIT CONCERT.

Marine Band of Interned Kronprinzessin Cecile to Play at Davis Theatre Next Sunday.

The United German societies of Norwich and vicinity held a meeting on Monday and everything was found to be in readiness for the grand concert which is to be given under the auspices of the United German societies of Norwich and vicinity by the Marine band of the interned North German Lloyd steamer, Kronprinzessin Cecile, assisted by the German Choral socie-ties on Sunday, May 21, 1916, at the

Davis theatre.

The programme which begins at 3.15 p. m. is for the benefit of the German and Austrian widows and orphans. The committee of ladies from the Immergruen lodge: Mrs. Lena Leopold, Mrs. Johanna Opitz and Mrs. Mary Steinke, NICHOLAS PERGEL Chairman Delegated From the Froehlichkeit Singing Club.

and Mrs. Johanna Heibel, Mrs. Henri-etta Eribeck and Mrs. Babetta Wun-derlich representing the Taftville Ladies' Rifie club, reported progress in reference to the arrangemnts for the big ball at Taftville on Saturday evening in Mannerchor hall, Taftville, on

The German and Red Cross delegates who have the distribution of the funds through the courtesy of the American Red Cross, the German Red Cross has been graciously allowed to establish a branch office in America, with the official title "German Red Cross Delegates." This office is located at 1123 Broadway, Room 1107, New York city, and is in charge of Eweld Hecker who is the official delegate of the German Red Cross Delegate of the German Red Cross State of the German Red Cross Delegates.

Germany, as promptly and as smoothly as the army itself the Red Cross mobilized. Every other organization in the country that desired to aid was placed under its direction and the government instructed all contributions of money and supplies to be sent to the money and supplies to be sent to it and the knightly orders.

The active relief work is divided into thirteen different departments that may be noted briefly as of suggestive value to all Red Cross organizations: Mobilization for all service. Under this department come the many hos-pital trains of the society; each train consists of a dining car, a kitchen car, two furnace cars, twenty-six cars for eight patients each, an operating car in the center of the train and two bandage cars, one at either end. The staff is composed of thirty-six persons, including surgeons, nurses, cooks and hospital orderlies. The Red Cross trains are classified by letter and the government hospital trains by number. Both are marked on the top and sides with the insignia of a Red Cross on a while ground. The male personnel, consisting of surgeons, physicians, clerks, sanitary column men and male nurses. 3. The supply depot service, embracing not only the large distributing stations, but the collecting depositories in the innumerable cities, towns and villages. 4. The female personnel.
